Spider Fox is no ordinary adventure game! You play as a Fox that has merged with a Spider, and your objective is to roam beautiful environments populated with all sorts of creatures and critters. The Mad Scientist has made some wild animal combinations and using the best of your skills and abilities, you must climb, and use Grappling Webs, and other items to overcome his obstacles to save the animals in need. You can upgrade things like Web and Climbing Levels as you go, and the environment is littered with items and collectibles to help you navigate map challenges.

Spider Fox was inspired by the developer's 5-year-old son, who offered a lot of feedback and ideas. Together they wondered what would happen if they combined the scariest thing in the world, a spider, with one of the cutest things, a fox, and out from that premise grew a fascinating world of ideas. What began as a personal "pet" project grew into the amazing game it is today. Suitable to players of all ages and experience levels, get ready to embark on a ridiculously fun adventure featuring plentiful of animals to rescue and cure.
