Haikuna is a fun word-search game set inside the classic fiction of The Wonderful Wizard of Oz, Journey to the Center of the Earth, and Don Quixote. You are challenged to teleport around these stories to find the words to haiku written during the Nanboku-chō, Edo, Genroku, and Meiji periods of Japan. Accompanied by mesmerizing dreamscape-audio, you click yōkai to reveal the words they hide. Words that are clicked either takes to that word or teleports you through that word (haiku word). Clicking a word can reveal a hidden yōkai. Hidden yōkai once revealed will create temporal distortions or present other obstacles that inhibit game play. As you complete more levels, they become more likely to show up, but the challenge they pose can be canceled out or mitigated with the right magic. Suitable to players of all ages and experience levels, can you find words for all 14 haiku to win the game?!?

Haikuna is available via STEAM™
